

ASSES AWAY VERY SUDDENLY SUNDAY

E. Dow, for Years in the Insurance Business, Dies at His Home.

His Affliction About Fifteen Months Since He Was Engaged Actively in the Insurance Business in This and Other Sections.

Mr. W. E. Dow died at his residence at 109 West Court street Sunday at 2 p. m., surrounded by his wife and son, and brother, H. Dow, who have been constantly at his bedside since his last illness attack, which occurred on Sunday last.

The mere fact that other members were not notified of his serious condition was that he has often had these "killing spells" but would invariably recover before the other relatives could reach his bedside, and they deemed a notification unnecessary.

Mr. Dow at the time of his death was in his thirty-sixth year. He was born in Edgefield, S. C., moving to Savannah at an early age, where he was in charge of the Savannah Railway for some years, later coming to Florida and engaging in the insurance business, making Lakeland his headquarters, and then locating in Tampa, afterwards removing to this city, in which he enjoyed a very lucrative business.

The deceased was a prominent member among the secret orders and was highly instrumental in locating the Elks Lodge in this city, from which the brothers kindly donated a life membership card. Besides he was one of the charter members of the Knights of Pythias at Lakeland.

The floral decorations were among the most profuse ever offered by loved friends in Gainesville, while those of the Elks, ordered by wire from Jacksonville, were the handsomest ever seen.

The local lodge of Elks attended the services in a body, escorting the remains to High Springs, where they were turned over to the Knights of Pythias.

The pall-bearers from the Elks were L. C. Lynch, H. S. Chubb, E. Barker, W. L. Hill, C. F. Gooden and E. A. O'Neill.

The remains were laid to rest at High Springs, where they will remain temporarily.

Deceased leaves a loving wife and three sons, W. E., Jr., three brothers, H. of Atlanta, Ga., C. H. of Montgomery, C. DeWitt of Tampa, besides two sisters, Mrs. R. L. Clark of Floral City and Mrs. R. L. Whiting of Flemington, all of whom were present at the interment at High Springs.

Although unconscious, Mr. Dow

GOOD MORNING, JUDGE.

Youthful Aspirants to Answer Before His Honor This Morning.

A lively session was held before Mayor Davis at the court matinee on Monday morning, and which will be given its second hearing at 9 o'clock this morning.

The case in question was where four young men of the city were charged by a prominent lady with disorderly conduct, and also breaking up her flower pots which were sitting just inside the veranda of her porch.

The lady testified that she recognized two of the young men, who answered her that they were "breaking up housekeeping," and when she went out they all separated and ran off, one saying, "run boys, the old lady is coming."

All four young men testified they knew nothing whatever of the affair, and mentioned outside parties who saw them about the time the occurrence was supposed to have happened.

New witnesses will be called today, when the judge will settle the case.

Two other cases disposed of were Louis Scofield, drunk, $2 and costs; John Smith, forfeited his bond of $10.

Advent Missionary Society.

The Missionary Society of the Advent Christian church will meet on Tuesday, September 8th, for their regular all-day meeting, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Ackley, in North Gainesville. Wednesday is the day set for these all-day meetings, but owing to the Masonic exercises to be held in the city that day, the time has been changed this month.

Friends are most cordially invited to attend this meeting and those who cannot spend the day should get their dinner, which, it is needless to say, is well worth the trip out there, and help the cause for which it is intended.

Rev. Lee and his bride will also be along with the crowd.

BAIRD TO REBUILD HIS MILL AT ONCE

Has Leased the Brown-Jenings Hardwood Plant For That Purpose.

WILL COMMENCE SAWING SOON

This Will Assure Farmers and Others of Their Basket Supply for Coming Season—Will Use Leased Plant for Only Short While.

Not slow to realize that something must be done at once, E. J. Baird, who had the misfortune to be burned out of his veneering plant and sawmill, has already begun operations for the erection of another plant.

With this purpose in view he has leased the large plant of the Brown-Jenings Hardwood Company, which is temporarily shut down, for a short period, to cut lumber to rebuild and to fill temporary orders he is now receiving.

The new plant Mr. Baird proposes to erect will be more modern in every respect than the old one, and he assures the truckers that he will be able to put them up a basket that will be equal to all occasions.

This plant annually employs a large number of hands and its destruction will be felt by the merchants until the new plant is erected, as the pay roll for both sawmill and veneering mill was a large one.

Mr. Baird was unfortunate in not having any insurance on his old building, but he is not daunted by this and will push the new venture with all the vim he has.

A QUIET HOME WEDDING.

Mr. Thos. J. Dayton and Miss DeLand Were the Happy Pair.

A quiet but pleasant home wedding was solemnized at the residence of bride's mother, Mrs. C. E. DeLand, Sunday afternoon, when Mr. Thos. J. Dayton and Miss Ruby DeLand were united in holy wedlock, Rev. T. J. Nixon of the First Methodist church officiating.

Promptly at the hour of 2 o'clock the happy couple marched into the parlor, which had been tastefully decorated for the occasion, to the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March which was pleasantly rendered by the bride's sisters, Miss Bernice DeLand and Mrs. J. N. Willis.

Following the ceremony the party were ushered into the dining-room where dinner was served, and this was also lovely decorated with bride's roses and asparagus ferns, after which they were escorted to the S. A. L. depot, and the happy couple departed for Jacksonville and other points amid a shower of rice.

The ceremony was witnessed only by the immediate family of the contracting parties, the out-of-town guests being Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Willis, Mr. and Mrs. M. H. DeLand and son of Williston, and Mr. C. Dayton of Lakeland.

The Sun, with other friends, joins in wishing the happy pair much conjugal bliss upon the matrimonial sea.

Confederate Veterans' Meeting.

There was only a small crowd of the Confederate Veterans of the county assembled in the city to attend their regular meeting Monday. Very little business was transacted at the meeting, owing to a full membership not being present, and the meeting was adjourned until their next regular meeting.
